

EMPLOYEE CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Background

The District recognizes the importance of ensuring its employees avoid direct or indirect conflicts of interest in order to assure the public that all business practices of the District are undertaken in an ethical manner.

Subject to any employee's rights, under a collective agreement, legislation or statutory regulation, employees of the District shall not place themselves in a position of conflict of interest as an employee of the District.

Definitions

A direct pecuniary conflict of interest will be deemed to exist where an employee receives remuneration (other than expenses) above and beyond the employee's regular salary or wages, whether from the District or any other source, for services that have been performed in the course of the employee's normal employment with the District, or for the sale of work or materials produced for the District as part of the employee's normal duties.

An activity which might reasonably be perceived as using the employment relationship for inappropriate personal financial advantage will be viewed as a conflict of interest.

Indirect pecuniary conflict of interest exists where an employee uses his/her position to make a decision, or effectively influence a decision that would result in a pecuniary benefit to a relative, partner, business associate or close friend.
