

School District 79 (Cowichan Valley)

Superintendent/CEO

The Board of Education for School District 79 (Cowichan Valley) is seeking “Expressions of Interest” for the position of Superintendent/CEO commencing Spring 2019 due to the retirement of the incumbent. The Board is committed to selecting an exemplary educational leader whose experience, success, passion and commitment to teamwork and excellence will help Cowichan Valley schools build on successes and further develop the School District’s capacity to meet the needs of all students. The Cowichan Valley “Profile of an Ideal Superintendent” details attributes of the successful leader.

“Expressions of Interest” should be sent by January 25, 2019, to Candace Spilsbury, Board Chair at cspilsbury@sd79.bc.ca and will be treated in strict confidence.

The “Expression of Interest” for the position should include a brief overview of experience and a “values statement” which will assist the Board in moving to the next steps in the selection process. Those steps will include gathering further information on professional achievements and arranging follow up discussions regarding the position with preferred candidates.
